Book of Life

Once again our Book of Life is in the Church foyer for the month of November, the month dedicated to those who have gone before us in death. You are invited to enter the names of deceased loved ones in the book. During November, we will remember in a special way those whose names are entered in the Book of Life. “Eternal rest, grant unto them O Lord, and let Perpetual Light shine upon them.”

Our PCCW is hosting a bake sale after the Masses on Nov 21 & 22. We invite all our wonderful bakers to share their favorite homemade cookies, brownies, breads, etc. Please drop off your labeled goodies prior to 6:45 pm on Nov 21. Thank you for your sweet generosity!

Early Deadline! Any announcements for the Nov 29 bulletin need to be submitted to the office by 10 am on Nov 17.

Please note: The Parish office will be closed Wednesday, Nov 25.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

A friend once took his young adult son to the casino for his birthday. He handed him $100 and said, “Let’s have a great time.” The son, a graduate student with limited money, quietly pocketed the money and refused to play. “I don’t want to lose it,” he said. But he missed the point: the money was not really his to pocket; it was his father’s invitation to share an experience together.
God sees our gifts a bit like this. In Jesus’ parable, a servant buries his master’s talent and explains: “Master, I knew you were a demanding person…so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground” (Matthew 25:24-25). The master condemns him not for failure but for refusing to risk. The servant’s fear distorts his image of the master and leads to a small, loveless response. No love, no risk. No risk, no relationship.
How easily we fall into this trap! We treat God’s gifts as fragile possessions rather than invitations. We play it safe, avoid risk, and tell ourselves we are wise and God is cruel. But Jesus praises those who trust the Master’s goodness enough to act boldly. They are not reckless but confident enough in their Master to risk their gifts for Him.
So, what is my interior story about God right now? Is it marked by generosity, adventure, and trust? Or by fear, caution, and suspicion? That hidden narrative shapes everything. Because love, by its nature, always takes risks with, and for, the beloved.
— Father John Muir ©LPi

Adult Religious Ed Class focusing on "The Son" in the Creed as we await His coming this Advent. 9:30-10:30 am Sunday, Nov 29th. Light refreshments. All are welcome.

Volunteers Needed

The Church is looking for volunteers to help with shoveling snow on the walkways and by the rectory this winter- especially the last week of January through March 6. If you are available and willing to help, please call the office at 715-454-6431. Thank you for your consideration.

“Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not people, because you know that the Lord will reward each one for whatever good they do…” Ephesians 6:7-8

Dear Saint Hubert, patron saint of hunters, we ask for your intercession. Help us to find balance in our passions and to use them to serve God. May we have the courage to change our lives when we are called, as you did on that Good Friday morning. Please pray for us and guide us on our spiritual journey. Amen.
