Cemetery Flagpole Memorial Project

On behalf of the families of John Czerwonka and Romey Kosobucki, we would like to give a special thanks to the following people for helping to complete our project and donating your time and materials- Jeff Konkell, Ralph Konkell, Roger Yenter, Ted Kowalski, and Mike Kurszewski.

Maribeth and John Czerwonka Jr

~ A thank you to John Czerwonka, Jr for being instrumental with his time that he dedicated to this project!

Mission Co-Op Weekend 2025

Next weekend at our June 1st Mass, we will welcome our Missionary Priest, Rev Antony Muthu from the Diocese of Kumbakonam, India. Please see the insert for more information.

Please pray for Fr. Gus who will be at St. Agnes, Weston and St. Florian, Hatley for a mission for his home diocese in Ghana. Kindly pray for a successful mission for him.

CEMETERY NEWS

Per the cemetery regulations, artificial flowers, ornaments, etc must be securely attached to the monument: in holders that clip onto the top of the monument, in urns located at the sides of the monument, or in holes in the monument base. For the safety of you and our volunteers, please remove any decorations or flowers by May 25. Any items left after May 25 will be stored in the shed for you to pick up. Items will be discarded after June 22.

Nothing should be in the path of the lawn mower or weed whacker. Thank you for your cooperation!

Those who ordered First Communion photographs: Your pictures are ready to be picked up in the sacristy before or after Mass.

Heartfelt
THANKS
TO OUR VOLUNTEERS!

Thank you to John & Lynn Zdroik for mowing the lawn around the cemetery and church. We appreciate your hard work and dedication to keeping our parish beautiful!

14 things to know about Pope Leo XIV

1. Robert Francis Prevost was born on Sept. 14, 1955, in Chicago to Louis Marius Prevost, of French and Italian descent, and Mildred Martínez, of Spanish descent. He has two brothers, Louis Martín and John Joseph.
2. His father was a World War II Navy veteran and school superintendent; his mother was a librarian who was very involved in parish life.
3. The new pope speaks multiple languages, including English, Spanish, Italian, French, and Portuguese.
4. He earned a bachelor of science degree in mathematics from Villanova University in 1977 before pursuing his religious vocation.
5. He completed his secondary studies at the minor seminary of the Augustinians in 1973 in Michigan. In 1977, he became a member of the Order of St. Augustine and took his solemn vows in 1981.
6. He completed a master of divinity degree at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago and earned a licentiate and doctorate in canon law from the Pontifical College of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome. He went on to teach canon law in seminaries during his time in Peru.
7. He was ordained a priest on June 19, 1982, by Archbishop Jean Jadot in Rome.
8. He served extensively in Peru from 1985 to 1998, working as a parish pastor, seminary teacher, and diocesan official. He was also part of the leadership of Caritas Peru, the Church's charitable organization.
9. After being elected the head of the Augustinian Province of Chicago, he returned to the U.S. in 1999. He was elected prior general of the Augustinians in 2001 and then reelected in 2007, serving as head of the order until 2013.
10. Pope Francis appointed him apostolic administrator and then bishop of the Diocese of Chiclayo, Peru, in 2014 and 2015 respectively, and received episcopal consecration on Dec. 12, 2014, at St. Mary's Cathedral in Chiclayo.
11. He was made a cardinal by Pope Francis on Sept. 30, 2023.
12. While serving the Church in Peru, Francis made him a member of the Dicastery for the Clergy in 2019 and then a member of the Dicastery for Bishops in 2020. In 2023, Francis made him prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops.
13. His episcopal motto — which is a bishop's personal motto — is "In illo uno unum," which means "In the one Christ we are one," reflecting his commitment to unity.
14. Prior to becoming pope, he had an active X account — the first to have his own social media account before becoming pope.
